

Hearing in Civil Suites by Sh. Ashwani Dagar and Sh. Prokash Chakraborty on 01.06.16 and 03.03.16 Against ARTEE in Patiala House Court, New Delhi

Civil Suite 111/2016 and 113/2016 by Ashwani Dagar & Prokash Chakraborty came up for hearing in Patiala House on 01.06.16 and 03.06.16.

As informed on 09.05.15, ARTEE submitted Affidavit for conducting Elections as per bye laws passed on 20.11.15 by General Body in Allahabad after compliance of Statuary requirements like Renewal of Registration, Approval of bye laws by Prasar Bharati /Registrar of Societies, Preparation of Voter List etc. Advocate of Plaintiff Sh. Ashwani Dagar took time for filing reply and the next date of hearing was fixed as 1st June 2016.

On 01.06.16, the plaintiff took a “U” turn and demanded appointment of Judicial Observer. Brief argument took place and Ld. ADJ asked both parties to submit in brief what they want. We have given our submission to our Advocate that when we agreed to Notify Election after statuary compliances why Plaintiff is coming with new conditions on every next date.

Today on 03.06.16, there was a strike of Advocates in all District Courts of Delhi and reply could not be submitted. The hearing took place and we reiterated our stand and also said that if plaintiff will come with new conditions on every hearing, we will contest the case on Merits.

Next Date is given 07th July 2016. In today’s hearing ARTEE was represented by Sh. Rajesh Kr. Gautam, Addl. Gen. Secy. and Sh. Yogesh Kumar, VP (TV).

Meanwhile, Central office caution all Units for indulging in passing such illegal resolutions which are against byelaws and approaching Authorities with malafied representations. Others wise Central office will be compelled to take disciplinary action as per bye laws against these Units.

Central Office