Treasurer issue was discussed. Smt. Revathy the Asst Treasurer was explained as to what extreme problems ARTEE had to face due to the non-cooperative attitude of past incumbents of Treasurer post and how members had to collect donations for even holding elections. All participants told madam that this is a crucial juncture, and we need her co-operation in all association activities, be it RSA drive, tours to all zones and states, court cases etc from financial point of view. All the meeting attendees requested her to give assurance to the august house that she would take constructive, active and positive role in association activities by attending CE, CC and CWC meetings and implementing resolutions but she left the meeting without giving any assurance.

Meeting ended with the vote of thanks by the chair.

M. Seshagiri,
General Secretary
