

Update on EA(5K) Gwalior Case

It is disappointing that the date in the case is again changed from 8th July 2013. Despite our best of efforts and even after changing the Advocate the case is not coming for hearing. Central office immediately discussed the matter with Sh. Manish Bishnoi, Advocate. After few days It was shown as 19th July 2013.

Our advocate inquired the matter and on 10th July, he mentioned the case again in hon'ble Sup. Court. As per information provided by him the matter last heard in April 2012 by the bench of Justice Dalveer Bhandari and Justice Deepak Mishra. Now justice Bhandari has retired. In Jan 2013 during dates Justice Radhakrishnan was sharing the bench with justice Deepak Mishra but the case could not come up for hearing. Our Advocate also informed that the date allocation is being done through a computerized system.

Now the bench is being shared by Justice H.L.Dattu and Justice Deepak Mishra where the case was mentioned. Meanwhile the date is mentioned as 8th August 2013.

Central office is fully aware and sensitive towards the issue and doing whatever we can under the circumstances.
